Love music? Want to gain experience in the Arts / Music / Charity sector and build leadership skills?

Introduction
Norfolk Community Arts Ltd (NORCA) is seeking a passionate Young Trustee (aged 18 - 29) to help shape the future of arts and community engagement in Norwich. Gain valuable professional experience in governance, leadership and strategic decision-making while contributing to a music- and young people-focused charity that changes lives through creativity. This is an opportunity to develop skills, influence direction and build your professional network in a voluntary capacity. An interest in music is desirable, but not essential. Please note that being a Trustee is an unpaid role.

Details
The Young Trustee will join the Board of Norfolk Community Arts Ltd (NORCA), helping to shape the Charity's strategic direction and support its mission to improve lives through arts and culture. Trustees work collectively to oversee organisational governance, ensure the Charity is financially sustainable, and make sure it operates within UK charity and company law.

The role includes helping generate strategic plans, reviewing budgets, contributing ideas, supporting good decision-making, being an advocate and ambassador, and acting in the best interests of the Charity and its beneficiaries. Trustees are expected to attend Board meetings, read papers in advance, and contribute actively to discussions. As a Young Trustee, you'll also provide a crucial perspective on children and young people to ensure their views, attitudes and expectations are central to NORCA's decision-making. More details about the charity are available in the Trustee Introduction Pack which can be downloaded from the 'Work with Us' page on the website.

This is an excellent professional development opportunity for a young person interested in leadership, governance, arts and cultural activity, community development or the charity sector. Mentoring and support will be provided. A base in Norfolk is desirable but not essential. Please note that being a Trustee is an unpaid role.

NORCA is a charitable company limited by guarantee, meaning Trustees have limited personal liability, provided they act reasonably, responsibly and within their legal duties.

If you're interested in applying for this role, please send us your CV, along with a single page letter explaining why you'd like to be a Trustee. Include any relevant skills and interests you already have. Email: admin@norfolkcommunityarts.org.uk. We look forward to hearing from you.
